

Parents Right to Know

Masada is a Title I School-wide school and as such is required to notify parents that they may request information on the professional qualifications of their student's teacher. Parents may request to see:

- If the teacher meets State Qualifications/licensure requirements,
- If the teacher is teaching under an emergency certification,
- If the teacher has a baccalaureate degree,
- If the child receives services from a paraprofessional and
- The qualifications of the paraprofessional.

Masada must also provide parents with a timely notice that their child has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher of core academic subjects who is not highly qualified.
