Public Comments:

Received Thank You cards. Introduction of Darlene Zahne; she is the new IEC Representative for Gap/Bodaway Chapter.

Reports:

Elouise Goatson:

JOM: Application in Modification but was still awarded. The Title VI will not be awarded until June.

Community Forum: Chapter Community Forum Meeting for PUSD Governing Board is schedule May 17, 2017 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Please be in attendance if you can.

Update on Navajo School Clothing: School year 16-17, there were unclaimed bundles of Navajo School clothes. A few students transferred out, it can't be given to another child, so Elouise took all the unclaimed clothes back to Window Rock. Navajo School Clothing orientation is next week for next school year. Elouise will be given the order invoices at that time. Indian Ed will be accepting application from July to mid-August for SY 17-18. Navajo School Clothing is for students from age 3 to 13.

PUSD Meet and Greet: May 9, 2017 at Lechee and Coppermine, Tsa Bii Kiin will be in June or July. Bodaway will barbecue and mingle with parents.

CI: Going good. The students graduating are using all their funds. CI started 8 years ago in PUSD. Headquarters is in Richmond, Virginia. CI willing to buy everything for the shower facility for Desert View and Lakeview.

IEC Member Reports:

Genevieve Dayzie: (Tсах Bii Kiin) No report. Didn't attend Chapter Meeting because all reports were made last Chapter Meeting.

Anna Martin and Darlene Zahne: (Bodaway/Gap) Chapter is having difficulties with the officials. The new CLUP members is back at 8. IEC did their reports.

Deborah Boone: (Kaibeto) The Chapter recognized the Kaibeto school basketball team. The team's first time to go to State. Majority of the meeting on the Power Plant shut down. Recognized the new Chapter Officials. It was a quick meeting but all went well.

Mathilda Burke: (LeChee) No report, missed meeting due to family emergency. Some home site leases are trying to go through.

Stanley John: (Page) Sports Complex had an Easter Egg Hunt. Page is doing the Page Attacks Trash, please attend so you can spend time with family. No school April 28, 2017.

Rob Varner: (Superintendent) The school is ahead of schedule of hiring new teachers. They hired new Principle for Middle School, Ms. Covington. Hired a new Educational Services Director Ms. Jahsman. CAB building took a lot of water damages, but the insurance covered the damage. 40% should be ready sometime in the fall. The staff will be getting pay raises. IEC members are invited to the graduation ceremony on May 20, 2017.
