

Catering Guide

The Fine Print

The Food Service Department is designed and developed to meet all your catering needs. From a continental breakfast to an office meeting or an elegant dinner, we welcome the opportunity to serve you and customize your special events. Should your plans include items or selections not found in this menu we would be delighted to customize menus for you.

To provide you with the best catered services, we request at least two weeks notice.

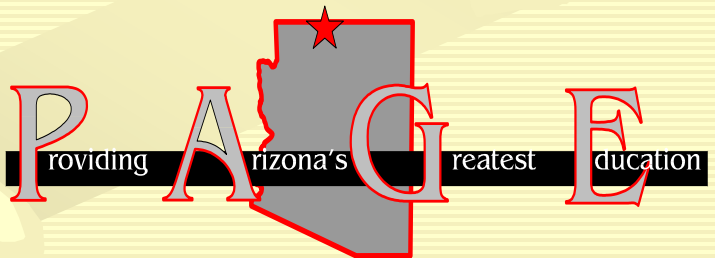

We know at time you may need to cancel an event with short notice. Please notify us as soon as possible so that we can make the adjustments.

Catering prices in this menu include disposable service ware, delivery and pick up.
