

Career Exploration Links

The vision of Wickenburg High School is simple:
Every Child has Hope
Every Student is a Graduate
Every Graduate has a Dream!

The hard part is knowing which dream you want to follow☺ Here are some career exploration sites that we hope you will try and explore to see what dream you are passionate about following.

<https://access.bridges.com/auth/login.do?type=SITE> – Bridges.com is the site we have all students at Wickenburg High School use to create their electronic career portfolio. Our site ID is 0006955. Students that forgot their portfolio name please see your counselor to have it reset.

<http://www.aztechprep.org/> - Arizona Tech Prep is a great site to get CTE information and explore career pathways.

<http://www.arizonaworkforceconnection.com/> - The Arizona Workforce Connection is a place that can help you plan for a career, search for jobs, find job fairs and talk to others.

<http://www.bls.gov/k12/> - The US Bureau of Labor and Statistics Career Guide is a great resource to help you figure out how your skills and passions can lead to a possible career.

<http://www.collegeview.com/careers/index.html> - Career Key is a site where you can take quizzes that will help you identify possible careers.

<http://www.keirsey.com/> - The Keirsey site allows you to take personality tests.

<http://www.todaysmilitary.com/careers> - This site lets you explore potential careers in the military and includes all branches of the military.

<http://www.umsl.edu/services/govdocs> - The Occupational Outlook Handbook site lets you look up almost any possible career and see what the expected salary would be, what type of working conditions you could expect in that occupation and what the job outlook for that career is expected to be in the next few years.

<http://www.khake.com/> - The Vocational Information Center site lets you explore vocational careers, find schools, and look at the current job market for specific fields.

Job Hunting Websites

<http://www.jobbankinfo.org/> - This is a site where you can look for jobs by state.

<http://www.careerbuilder.com/> - Career Building is a site with over 250,000 job opportunities nationwide. You can post your resume for potential employers to view.

<http://maricopa.jobing.com/> - This is an online job posting site for the Maricopa County area.