

Pima High School is seeking it's next Head Girls Basketball Coach to assume his/her duties with the 2017-2018 Season. The coach's primary responsibility will be to coach the varsity team and oversee the entire girls basketball program. All applicants must pass or be capable of passing all NFHS and AIA courses needed to become fully certified as a Arizona High School head Coach. Preference will be given to Certified Teachers in the Pima School District. This position is open until filled. If interested, please send a completed application, resume and letter of interest to Jenny Taylor at jtaylor@pima.k12.az.us. The position will remain open until filled.