

2020 ETC Conference: Information Security Sessions

Last updated: 1/2/20

Session	Description
Establishing a Security Program Using Internal Resources & a Lean Budget	General Preparedness, Best Practices - This session will discuss and describe establishing an information security program using internal resources while acknowledging the reality of a lean budget. NAU CISO Michael Zimmer, YC CISO Sean Hagan
When are you ready for a CISO?	Making the switch to managed security monitoring, and why/how it might benefit your organization. Alagen
End User Education Awareness: Adventures in Phishing	Improving user awareness and assessing risk using free tools NAU CISO Michael Zimmer, YC CISO Sean Hagan
You're Under Attack! (Double session)	Demonstration & discussion of an ongoing attack – the skill required to penetrate a network is not great. Watch, talk, and learn! NAU, YC, Alagen
So Your District has had Cyber Incident, Now What?	Presented by representatives of The Trust, the organization that insures most AZ school districts, this session will provide information about the how, who, what, why, and how much of a security breach. The Trust
IT Risk Assessments	This session will discuss the importance of establishing a regular cycle of risk assessments including different approaches to the process and how to use the results for planning purposes. NAU CISO Michael Zimmer, The Trust - Wes Gates
Cyber Security Open Forum	Present your questions, pain points, concerns, must-haves and needs to better secure your networks. Learn from AZ based experts about possible resources. NAU, YC, Alagen, The Trust, ASET/ADOA, ETC
Ransomware Tabletop Exercise (Double session)	In this session, we will work through responding to a cybersecurity incident. Discussion and takeaways about lessons learned. NAU, YC, The Trust, Alagen