

This Week's News

May 30, 2017

Please look through our abbreviated newsletter for this week. We will be doing a lot of fun things in preparation for the end of the year!

- All library books due Tuesday- If they are not turned in, you will be fined for the full retail price.
- We will be learning about and acting out fairytales and fables this week.
- We will participate in outside stations.
- We will take time to explore the first grade playground/classrooms.
- Please continue to send backpacks with your child through Friday. We plan to send everything home with your child through the week.
- Report Cards will be sent home Friday.
- The papers and packets sent home are for you to practice skills with your child this summer.

This has been a great year of learning and I am so proud of each student and his/her effort in Kindergarten. I hope everyone has a wonderful summer! Thank you for a great year!
