This Week:

This is our last week! I will be sending home blankets and pillows on Thursday.

We will be doing our last screening with the Pre-kids test. I know all the students have done very well and will do well when they start Kindergarten.

Student of the Week:

Braylon: He has been telling the truth when I ask him. He has also been very kind and following the rules!

May Events

- 29th: No School

June Events

- 1st: Last student day

I hope everyone has a safe and fun summer! Good Luck next year in Kindergarten!
