

St. Mary's Piscataway Weekly Update

March 23, 2017

- All students in grades Pre-K3 through Eighth have learned about Cherry Blossoms this week. They looked at photographs, learned Japanese songs, wrote poems, and completed art projects. If you have the time, please stop by and see our wonderful displays up and down the entire hallway!
- We continued our Lenten journey this week. We have loved hearing the intentions that the students offer for the people and things that they love.
- Third quarter has officially ended! Report cards will be distributed in school, as well as, emailed out on Friday, March 31.
- On Friday, March 31, the students will attend a performance entitled "The Spirit to Overcome." The performance begins at 8:30 am. Please join us if you are able.
- Please remember that registration for next year is still open! Space is getting limited in some classes, so please reserve your spot.
