

St. Mary's Piscataway Weekly Update

March 31, 2017

- All of the students are working hard in the fourth quarter! Third quarter report cards will be emailed and sent home to all current accounts today.
- We continued our Lenten journey this week. We have loved hearing the intentions that the students offer for the people and things that they love.
- The students enjoyed "The Spirit to Overcome." It is always nice to take a look at and reflect upon the past, present, and future.
- Please remember that registration for next year is still open! Space is getting limited in some classes, so please reserve your spot.
