As the parents / legal guardians of the above student, I hereby confirm that:

1. I understand that the school admits and places students based on the Admissions Policy, Guidelines, and Criteria; I have read these before submitting this application.
2. I understand that the ISU calendar does not follow the German school calendar.
3. I understand that all application requirements must be submitted before the application is reviewed.
4. I understand that to help in the review of this application, the school may request additional evaluations, screening or placement tests, an interview, or an evaluation / observation of the applicant in a classroom setting, and that failure to comply will result in discontinuation of the application review.
5. I understand that the school has the right to place students on the waiting list based on the admissions policy, place availability, and the date applications are completed.
6. I accept that the school reserves the right to deny admission for reasons the admissions committee deems correct, including but not restricted to academics, behavior, English proficiency (Upper School), special learning needs, etc.
7. I accept that the school may deny admissions if the information on the application is incorrect or incomplete.
8. I give my consent to the Admissions Office to request additional school records, evaluations, and pertinent information from the current or previous school(s).
