

My name is Lisa Smaldone. I am a proud graduate of Rhode Island College earning a Bachelor of Science degree, majoring in Elementary, Early Childhood and Special Education. I also earned a Master's Degree in Education, continuing my graduate studies at Rhode Island College. I have several years of teaching experience encompassing the early childhood and elementary grades. In addition to classroom teaching, I dedicate my time volunteering, and, also enjoy teaching faith formation within my parish as a children's liturgy leader and sacramental preparation teacher. It is both an honor and privilege teaching and preparing children both sacramentally within the Catholic faith, and, developing my students' gifts and talents as learners and leaders in their educational paths within my classrooms. I am happily married to my husband and best friend. As a dedicated wife and mother, I passionately love and enjoy spending time with my family.
