

Mr. McNabb joins the Holy Name family after eleven years in public and charter schools in Mississippi and Washington, D.C., where he taught English, science, and social studies and served as a vice principal at the middle school and high school levels. He is excited to be returning full-time to his roots in the Church and to be closer to family in Rhode Island where he is living with his wife and daughter. Please stop by the faith formation office and say hi!