Mrs. Tabitha M. Gendreau sent me the following information about participating in the Fall River Fitness Challenge. "It is a great way to foster a team environment of health and wellness. The program starts 14 January and only costs $5 for 4 months. During the 4 months there are 2 free workouts a week, Bi Weekly weigh-ins to track your progress and keep you on track as well as weekly nutrition seminars. I would be happy to be a point of contact and lead a team for Holy Name Staff or Holy Name School. It truly is a wonderful program and would be a great thing for everyone to get involved in at such a low cost." It is a wonderful opportunity for all Fall River residents but certainly an exception opportunity for any Holy Name School families who might like to become part of a team. Mrs. Gendreau has many gifts and talents many of them are in the areas of health and fitness. Here is more information about the Fitness Challenge and how it began nine years ago: <http://www.gfrpartners.com/FitnessChallenge-about.html>. A very special thank you to all who purchased Basketball Hoop raffle tickets; Mr. Paul Doiron, CYO Basketball coordinator for Holy Name School, was very pleased to announce that the basketball hoop raffle held in December raised $1194 for a new basketball hoop. The new hoop costs $1168; therefore there is a small amount available to go towards the second hoop. Mr. Doiron has written a grant to help in raising the money needed for the second hoop. The basketball hoops are used by Holy Name School students, Holy Name Parish members who are part of the CYO Basketball teams and members from the community who are members of the Holy Name CYO teams. Thank you again for your generosity.

Also, special thanks to all of you who faithfully send in Box Tops; the school received a check for $501.40 for all the Box Tops that Jayme Chippendale has sent in prior to deadline in December 2016.

The school also received another check from Yankee Candle for orders placed on their website. The check was for $139.20.
