10:00 Am

WALLACE ELEMENTARY

Join fellow Bulldog summer readers from Wallace, Lincolnway, and Trimmer as we enjoy a summer treat and discuss the books we read.

READ IN 100 DIFFERENT PLACES CHALLENGE!

What is on your summer reading list?

Where will you be reading this summer?

Dear Parents/Guardians:

We believe strongly that summer reading is important! Reading every day is critical to maintaining students' reading levels over the summer. To participate in our summer reading program, students will need to log all the places they read this summer. The goal is to read 100 different places. Complete the pages within this booklet with all the places your child reads in June, July, and August. This includes your school's recommended book as well as all the other books your child reads this summer. Sign the back page of this booklet and fill in your child's name and 2016/2017 teacher's name. Return this booklet to school by Friday, September 2, 2016. Every child who reads in at least 100 different places during the summer will receive a certificate of participation and will be invited to a special celebration with the Elementary Reading Specialists and Elementary Principals.

Plan time for summer reading right now! Be creative and think about all of the places your family could read. Talk to your child and come up with a plan together to read for twenty minutes each day. By reading with your child, you will be creating quality time that will benefit both of you. Happy Reading!
