

David Koba
May 2015 Alumni of the Month

After graduating from Conemaugh Township Area High School in 1972, Mr. Koba earned his bachelor's and master's of education from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown. He then transferred to the main campus of the University of Pittsburgh. Koba then went on to get his principal's certificate at Penn State University.

Mr. Koba stated, "I completed my teaching certificate in three years instead of four."

Mr. Koba started his teaching career at the Forest Hills School District where he taught for two years. After teaching at Forest Hills, he came to the Conemaugh Township Elementary School to teach. He has taught seventh grade reading and was an assistant principal and athletic director.

When asked who Mr. Koba's favorite teacher was in high school and why, Mr. Koba's response was Mr. Greninger, his math teacher. Mr. Koba stated, "Mr. Greninger's math class was always interesting. He had a lot of patience with his students and always had a smile on his face."

Mr. Koba's fondest memories as a student at Conemaugh Township were all of the sports, football, wrestling, and track. He really enjoyed playing all of these.

Mr. Koba will retire this year after serving at Conemaugh Township for the last thirty-eight years!
