

After graduating from Conemaugh Township Area Middle School and High School in 2005, Sadie Wills attended the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown and Mount Aloysius College where she earned her nursing degree in 2010. While at Mount Aloysius, she became a member of the Honor Society Sigma Alpha Pi: The National Society of Leadership and Success.

In the years to follow, Sadie tutored chemistry, anatomy, and physiology at the college. She gives Mrs. Haddle full credit for her successes in the sciences.

Since leaving college, Sadie has worked for the Conemaugh Memorial Medical Center for the last three years. She is presently working as a registered nurse on the intravenous therapy team. Sadie has a certification as a critical care nurse by the American Association of Critical Care Nurses and the American Heart Association certifies her in both advanced cardiovascular life support and pediatric advanced life support.

“Health care has taught me to appreciate every day. When not at work, I strive to live with no regrets. I enjoy traveling and thrive on adventure. My endeavor in life is to prove to myself I can mentally and physically achieve anything, especially those things I am most terrified of.”

Her full respect goes to both Mr. Adams and Mrs. Artman. Sadie remembered Mr. Adams as being a knowledgeable educator with a down-to-earth personality. His persona and humor was easy to relate to, and he did a great job treating students as equals. Sadie remembers Mrs. Artman as a wonderful influence to all students, especially her female pupils. She was an exemplary model of a strong female. Sadie remembers her as resilient, intelligent, and poised. Her lady-like manner is the perfect example of how every woman should act. She feels blessed to have had both Mr. Adams and Mrs. Artman as role models during her prime developmental years.

Sadie’s fondest memories in high school center on the two years she spent studying chemistry with Mrs. Haddle. “Mrs. Haddle was a wonderful instructor who encouraged scholastic and personal growth through learning. Her passion of chemistry and educating teens made learning exciting.”

Miss Wills is currently residing in her home town of Jerome, Pennsylvania. She is currently in the process of moving to Phoenix, Arizona where she will continue to pursue her career as a registered nurse.

“My philosophy in life is peace, love, unity, and respect, a basic way of how humans should treat one another. My goal is to maintain a positive attitude, achieve harmony without violence, find peace with others and the world, show goodwill toward others, and myself and understand that humankind is capable of achieving more than one might imagine. I am excited and embrace the changes ahead of me. I am anxious to see where my life and career are headed.”
