Academic Success and Achievement \(ASA\)

ASA serves to engage students through a series of programs and services designed to assist in their academic success, with a focus on retention and success of underrepresented students, with expanding contributions to all undergraduates. Programs provided include AZ Assurance Scholar's Program, New Start, Prodigy, Student Support Services/TRiO, and Pathway to Academic Student Success (PASS) Probation Program.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Arizona Assurance Scholars Program

Students interested in this program are encouraged to begin the requirement process starting their freshman year. You must have completed the FASFA before March 1, every year.

Prodigy - Learning Communities

This is a FREE goal-driven program open to any incoming University of Arizona Freshman. These services are for one year only.

Office of Early Academic Outreach

The mission of the Office of Early Academic Outreach at the University of Arizona is to increase the number of *ethnic minority, low-income, and first-generation college-bound students who are eligible to enter a degree program at a university. Programs provided include Mathematics, Engineering, Science Achievement (MESA), Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs (GEAR UP), Building the Future, Native American Science and Engineering Program (NASEP), College Academy for Parents, and Algebra Academy.

Native American Science and Engineering Program \(NASEP\)

NASEP is a part of the Office of Early Academic Outreach at the University of Arizona. The Office of Early Academic Outreach partners with The University of Alaska-Anchorage in the Indigenous Alliance in an attempt to effect a systematic change in the hiring patterns on Indigenous Americans in STEM fields. NASEP is a year-long program designed to provide Native American high school students with a vision of a career in a Science, Technology, Engineering, or Mathematics (STEM) field.

National Association for College Admission Counseling \(NACAC\)

The NACAC website provides tools for transitioning from high school to college. It's never TOO early to start planning! Tools provided include college preparation, college search, applying to college, paying for college, and succeeding in college.
