

USE OF TECHNOLOGY & ELECTRONIC INFORMATION SERVICES & EQUIPMENT

QCHS may provide Electronic Information Services (EIS) and equipment to qualified students. Electronic Information Services include networks (Internet), databases, and many computer accessible source of information, whether from hard drives, tapes, compact disks (CDs), flash drives or other electronic sources. The use of the services shall be in support of education, research, and the educational goals of Queen Creek High School.

To assure that the EIS and equipment are used in an appropriate manner and for the educational purpose intended, Queen Creek High School will require anyone who uses the EIS and equipment to follow its guidelines and procedures for appropriate use. Anyone who chooses to misuse, abuse, or chooses not to follow the EIS agreement may be subject to disciplinary action.

It is important that each user and their parents sign the EIS agreement. This agreement is part of the Policy Acknowledgement Signature Sheet. If this sheet is not on file, students will NOT be permitted to avail themselves of Electronic Information Services. Queen Creek High School reserves the right to log the use of all systems and monitor all system utilization. Accounts may be closed and files may be deleted at any time.

Queen Creek High School is not responsible for any service interruptions, changes, or consequences. The school reserves the right to establish rules and regulations as necessary for the efficient operation of the Electronic Information Services and equipment. Queen Creek High School does not assume liability for any user abuse, misuse or any information retrieved via EIS, nor does it assume any liability for information lost, damaged or unavailable due to technical or other difficulties.
