

Title I Instructional Strategies

For its Title I program the District will require each school to implement effective instructional strategies that are derived from scientifically-based research and include:

- giving primary consideration to extended learning time;
- helping to provide an accelerated, high quality curriculum;
- establishing high expectations for student performance for all students;
- aligning with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks; and
- minimizing the removal of students from the classroom during regular hours of instruction.