School Mission and Goals

The mission of Kiser Elementary School is to provide appropriate skill development in all academic areas. Our goal is to have children reading at grade level by the end of third grade. Through monitoring, the Paloma School District will fill in the learning gaps by "breaking the codes" in reading, language, and math. We strive for excellence, empowerment, and engagement of both students and staff.

Paloma School District has a good discipline plan where parents are kept informed of student behavior daily and/or as needed. Paloma School uses Project Wisdom with morning words of wisdom for character education. Health and prevention of tobacco, drug and alcohol abuse are taught in each grade level and the Rural Health Team provides a sex ed class for our 6th - 8th graders.
